Publishers Nashville Patriot.

The Cash System. After mature deliberation the Publishers of this paper have determined to adopted the CASH SYSTEM. They have been led to this step by the heavy losses experienced from debts scattered throughout the State, which they have been unable to collect, the necessity which compels them to pay cash for labor in the printing office, for paper and other sapplies, and the general adoption of the system on the part of leading houses in all branches of trade and industry. The cash system, necessary to protect us, will also be beneficial to punctual subscribers, inasmuch as it will rid us of the expense entailed by non-paying subscribers, and enable us to reduce the price of our weekly paper. From this date, therefore, we shall enter the name of no person on our books as a subscriber, unless he pays for his paper in advance. And on the 1st day of July next, we shall erase from our subscription lists every name not paid in advance. Our weekly paper will be two dollars per annum. Those who have already paid in advance beyond the 1st day of July, 1861, will be allowed the benefit of this reduction from that date.

We shall keep this notice standing in our columns until the 1st of July, and, on that day, erase every delinquent from our list.

The publication of the DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY PATRIOT will be continued from this date as formerly. Our extensive Job Department will also be carried on as usual.

We make this announcement, not for the information of the great mass of our readers, establishment would go by the board in consequence. There are a few men in Tennessee who are afflicted with the irradicable opinion that they hold in their hands the destint of every newspaper that has the misfortune to number them among its sub-cribers. They are profoundly impressed with the conviction that they have but to write down and mail the fatal sentence, "Stop my paper." or if they happen to be addicted to the use of profane language, "Stop the d-d thing," and a printing office is instantly smashed up are hurled into bankruptsy and a broken heart. Each and every one of them honestly believes that his copy of the paper is put in all, and let him have an immense crowd. type and print d expressly for him, and that it is the only one of the kind that is pub lished. Believing this, if the editor utters a sentiment that does not accord with his way ings, for which the editor should be indicted pany. It appears that he met the private and made to suffer the extreme penalty of the law. These men still cling to and worship that "Sheeted memory of the past," the Union, and believe that all who pronounce the pattern of "A Subscriber." Here is the way A. S. begins his letter .-You will observe that his style of orthography is in some respects inferior to that of the standard lexicographers; but it is nevertheless admirably adapted to the ordinary purposes of epistolary correspondence, "Gentlemen I have bin a Subscriber for your Paper for sevral years being a Whige Sucked Whigry from my Mothers Brest." That A S. has "bin" a subscriber to the PATRIOT for "sevral" years will seem incredible to some; but we presume it is true. We are personally acquainted with quite a number of men of the highest standing in society against whom a similar charge might successfully be brought. That he "sucked Whigry from his Mothers Brest' is also quite likely." It is a phenomenon, however, that we don't pretend to account for, not being sufficiently acquainted with the nature of the female "Brest" to say whet it is or is not capable of yielding to the demands of energetic infancy.

A. S. goes on to say that he used to like the Parrior, and is unkind enough to add: "Yew don very well so Long as you stood firm to the Principles of the name of your paper & Faught Democrats & the Devil But a lass a lass my Editor has gone wiid & is in Pr. A. S. also remarks: "I am happy to Inform you that old Bedford is all wright" and "will vote for no seperation & R." We don't know exactly what he means by "& R," and can't say whether he is correct about that or not. But we believe old Bedford is all right sure enough. If she should vote for "no seperation," though, she will be all wrong. "We dont beleve in trompling under foot the most A TRIOT MUST BE ACCOMPANIED WITH THE Sacred Document that was ever Goten up by man." We don't "beleve" in "trompling" on that Document either, and so far as we are individually concerned we do n't intend to do it.

One word to "A Subscriber" and other men of his way of thinking and doing, and we shall have done. The PATRIOT is published at the rates announced in another column You are at liberty to subscribe for it if you choose. You are also at liberty to let it alone. We have never tried to please everybody, and are not surprised that we have tailed to please you. We have witnessed a great many failures of just that sort. You take the PATRIOT (we don't know whether you have paid for it or not); if you like it, keep on taking it-not forgetting in the mean time to keep on paying for it; if you don't like it, and wish to stop, we know of no clause in the constitution either of the late Union or of the Confederate States that you will violate in gratifying that wish. And as strange as it may seem to you we are quite as indifferent about the matter as is either of the constitutions we have named. Do just as you please in the premises, and we shall be satisfied-just so you don't write us any more of your stupid letters. If you want your papers stopped, a single line to the pubishers will be sufficient.

AN UG T WEAPON .- We received yester day from Messrs. Sharp and Hamilton, something in the shape of, and about as heavy as half a dozen, Bowie Knives. The blade is about thirteen inches long, the handle of solid brass, and altogether weighs a pound and a half or two pounds. It is made of the best cast-steel, and is decidedly the ugliest looking weapon which we have seen, for work in close quarters. They are manufactured in this city by Messrs. S. & H., and we understand a great many of the volunteers ara providing them-elves with them. Messrs. S. & H. can supply any number of them.

We hear that there are a few persons in business in this city, who are in the habit of availing themselves of the necessities of the volunteers to charge extortionate prices but for that of one here and there, who hav- for articles for which they may be called uping indignantly stopped his paper, has been on to supply them. MESSES. J. N. HARRIS & Co.,
Gentlemen: —The confidence I have in Perry Davis.
Pain Killer as a remedy for Colds, Coughs, Burns Sprains and Rheumatism, for the cure of which I have successfully used it, induces me to cheerfully recommend its virtues to others.

A few months ago I had recourse to it to destroy a felon; although I had never heard of its being used for that purpose, but having suffered intensely from a for-mer one, and having no other remedy at hand, I applied the Pain Killer freely for about fifteen minutes at evening, and repeated the application very briefly the next morning, which entirely destroyed the Icion, and fa-creased my confidence in the utility of the remedy Yours truly,
